OF THE LATEST BEDS

Sienna Rattan bed, from £1625 for a double, Feather & Black.

The brand's best-selling design gets a textural revamp, with a new on-trend rattan headboard. Shop the range of coordinating bedroom furniture, including a chest of drawers, a wardrobe, and a bedside table, too.

Artie king-size bed, £1299, Heal's.

Part of a five-piece furniture range in walnut, created by Magnus Pettersen, the Artie bed is the perfect blend of luxury and Mid-century modern style. Rather than a coordinating walnut headboard, you'll find this one is upholstered in sumptuous deep navy velvet.

Cambridge bed in Faded & Degraded Melting Paisley, from £4325, Timothy Oulton.

One of several new beds for spring/summer, this one has traditional buttoning and a classic shape. Yet, the clean lines and low footboard give it a contemporary twist. Plus, the splattered ink damask-patterned fabric is a thoroughly modern choice.

All the right angles

Start the day – or relax at the end of it – with a thorough drenching from the sleek A.Zeta showerhead. Designed by Alberto Apostoli for Newform, the A.Zeta is inclined so it works as both a jet showerhead or a waterfall, meaning you can enjoy either flow. Available in polished, satin, or black and white steel, prices start from £1426.80. newform.it

DARK MODE

Love the trend for sleek black finishes? The latest range from Heritage Brass is for you. The matt black collection includes 26 products, from traditional knobs and cup-style drawer pulls to sleek modern sockets, light switches and handles. Made from solid brass with a cared and baked-on powder coating, each piece is scratch and chemical resistant so it'll withstand everyday use. From £4.83 for a cabinet knob. m-marcus.com/heritage-brass
