FRANKE'S LAUNCHES ITS GLORIANA TAP

Featuring an enduringly popular, elegant swan-neck design, Franke has introduced its new Gloriana tap in two covetable finishes.

Available in polished Chrome or brushed SilkSteel finish, the Gloriana tap is design versatile for modern and traditional kitchen styles.

Fitted with a Neoperl aerator to give a champagne-like flow, the highly functional mixer tap has two easy-to-operate side levers and stands 366mm tall with a spout reach of 194mm.

Suitable for low pressure systems, the Gloriana tap comes with a five-year warranty on working parts and one-year guarantee on the finish.

HERITAGE BRASS HAS LAUNCHED ITS SIGNAC COLLECTION

A capsule collection comprising of round rose door handles, elongated cabinet handles and circular cupboard knobs, Signac ensures a seamless finish in interiors.

Signac is available in seven striking finishes, including Polished Nickel and Satin Brass, there's a complementary colour to suit all interior schemes. Opt for Polished Brass with its warm, mellow tones and its heritage feel for an opulent appearance within traditional décors, or choose Antique Brass for a more rustic, aged appearance with its varying shades.

For more modern interiors, Polished Chrome has a timeless touch. With its mirrored effect, the finish reflects light around the room to create elegant bathroom and kitchen schemes. For something more bold and contemporary, opt for Matt Bronze.

SENIOR OPS APPOINTMENT SUPPORTS SUSTAINABILITY FOCUS

Triton, has appointed a new Operations Director to play a vital role in delivering strategic sustainability goals, as the business works towards becoming net zero by 2025.

David Savage brings more than 14 years' experience in the manufacturing, operations and supply chain sectors to Triton Showers. As well as making significant contributions towards reducing CO2 and improving efficiency levels, he will also be responsible for enhancing supply chain resilience.

Commenting on his appointment, David said: "I'm delighted to be joining an organisation that has such a progressive environmental strategy and is future focused. From an operational point of view, my role will be central to helping Triton realise its vision of becoming the most sustainable shower brand in the UK. I'm therefore looking forward to exploring new ways of delivering both cost and carbon savings throughout the business by making best use of valuable resources."

David Tutton, Managing Director at Triton, said: "We are extremely pleased that David has joined the business. His extensive industry background will be invaluable and his arrival couldn't be better timed, as we have some pretty ambitious goals to accomplish in the next four years. While we've achieved a lot already, gaining fresh insights from David and getting his input into policies and procedures will mean we can do even more."
